

2020 CHARITY: CAMP RAISING SPIRITS

25th Annual Cabin Fever Weekend

Laissez Les Bons Temps Rouler

Or as they say in NOLA during Mardi Gras, "let the good times roll". Our theme this year is Mardi Gras, celebration of extravagance and (over) indulgence before Lent. Or the translation for Parrot Heads, it's the weekend in Beaver Falls PA!

The Theme will carry through the weekend on the tables and balconies! We ask everyone to consider participating in the table decorating contest. Think your table as a 'mini float'. Our judge Uncle Bill will be Rex, the king of the Carnival and will carefully inspect the tables to give his nod to the winner.

As of January 20, there are a few balconies left for decorating. Think Bourbon Street, minus the adult shows and throwing items from the balcony. We have to keep it safe and clean, but your imagination is your guide on the rails! Please contact Uncle Bill at seminormal@verizon.net, if you are interested in participating.

Camp Raising Spirits

(www.campraisingspirits.com): The Greater Pittsburgh Chapter of the Oncology Nursing Society in 1994, inaugurated its first weekend retreat entitled "Camp Raising Spirits." The retreat provides an experience for individuals (18 & over) with cancer and their guest, at the Laurelville Retreat Center in Mt. Pleasant, PA. The camp consists of 50 adults with cancer and their guests who participate in a variety of fun and relaxing activities. The three-day camp provides the attendees the opportunity to gather to celebrate their life and put the everyday stress of their diagnosis and treatment problems on the side. This is the longest running camp of its kind in the US.

Dan 'Shrimper Dan' Porco will be spinning the discs for our musical enjoyment. Once the night is over around the pool (10:30ish), we move on over to the bar. Have no fear! It's walking distance – maximum 80ft!

Activities are planned through the entire weekend!

Friday – 7pm: Jell-O Shot Contest. Be creative – it can be a pudding shot or maybe something new, just not a 'liquid' shot out of a bottle. If you want to participate, email Mike Shaw at Michael_F_Shaw@yahoo.com You will need to bring at least 30 shots to enter the contest. Bring a cooler for storage as well as your sign, that lists the shot and your name. A small sampling fee will give you voting rights to vote for your favorite shot.

Cornhole Competition Friday and Saturday. You might be good at shooting the breeze, are you good at tossing the bag? If you are interested in being a part of this inaugural event, contact Tami Seretti at tamisuewho@comcast.net. Prize awarded to the winning team. There is an entrance fee for the competition.

Table Decorating Contest will start on Friday. Balcony Contest voting is on Saturday afternoon.

Dan Porco will start our morning off with music and continue through until dinner time.

Hospitality Suite (Saturday afternoon) will have a little bit of a different twist this year. We will provide a few snack items from the hotel but like in the past we will have shared plates. There are restrictions: No - crock pots / sandwich trays / salads / veggie or cheese trays. Please watch our sites for details.

Basket Auction will begin on Saturday afternoon. Patti Meyers is heading up the room of baskets! If you are doing a basket (individual or group), make sure there is a sign with your basket with the following information: Theme Name / Created – Donated by/what is in the basket. If you want to help with the basket auction but, cannot do a basket. Consider donating a NEW bottle of cheer or lottery tickets. You can bring these to the February meeting or bring to Cabin Fever. If you cannot make it please consider donating an item or basket as well.

Pool Games will commence on Saturday afternoon. In the past they have been both team and individual, sometimes we are actually in the pool, most of the times we are on land. The games this year are under lock and key with Kerry and Kristy.

Dinner will be served on Saturday about 6pm. The Basket Auction will be closed during dinner and will reopen when the band starts to play at 7pm.

The entertainment for Saturday night is The Funky Uncles! Yes, once again they are back to send us in to the night and wee hours (well really from 7pm to 11:01pm, we are being rebels this year)!

When the band takes a break about 9pm, that is the time to get your tickets ready for the Basket Auction.

I completely forgot to remind you that we do a total of three 50/50 raffles during the weekend! One on Friday night, one Saturday afternoon and one Saturday night.

Remember this is a weekend of CHARITY, we do this because of charities that need a little help from friends. The $50 registration fee for the weekend includes so much fun and music. Fees for the Jell-o Shot contest and Cornhole contest are separate from the Registration Fee, and both will benefit the charity.
