

July Meeting Minutes

Shame on you for six weeks if you missed this one !

With our secretary not present, I had to assume the only office that I've never held for a night. Here's my meeting notes from our July meeting.

Randy opened the meeting at 7:00 to a rousing crowd. Several members came dressed to celebrate our great country's birthday. We had "Uncle Sam, The Statue of Liberty, Eddie the Eagle & Lady Gaga to name a few.

The treasurer's report was read. Hell I don't remember how much money we have. (But it's more than $5.00)

I did the membership report and we sang Happy Birthday to our country and everyone else in the world that has a July birthday. I don't know who owes dues but you better pay up soon. Everyone was given $1.00 to remove their name tags. However several members balked at the offer and had to have them forcibly removed.

Volunteer Committee. Patti Meyers mentioned that Bob & Shelia LoGreco are looking for a crew to help them work Open Streets Pgh. on 7/30. (You can contact them at (parrothead141@hotmail.com). I don't remember the rest of the stuff but You can hear it at the August meeting.

Bright notes: Randy reported that Glynis Gilliland is doing well at home after her surgery and is looking forward to getting back into club functions. Great News !!!!

Upcoming social events, fundraisers and volunteer opportunities (and there are several) can be viewed on our website. steelcityfins.org

What a night full of surprises!!

Roland's treated us all to a fireworks display on their balcony! After the box of "snakes" and both roman candles went out, all 13 of us retired to the meeting room for a celebratory Lemon Water. BUT What To Our Wondering Eyes Should Appear????? It was J.B. himself ! Sittin' there drinking a beer!!

He said he was on his way to St. Louis and feeling guilty about blowing us off this year. So he did an A capella version of "If The Phone Doesn't Ring It's Me". He offered to pay for our Lemon Water and we thanked him. But assured him the the song was way more than enough. He sat and chatted with us for about 37 seconds and was back on the road promising us as always, "I'll see you next year"

Giveaways: No tickets were necessary as everyone got one!

50/50 ? We drank it up !

Meeting was adjourned at 7:13

Respectfully submitted (with my tongue firmly implanted in my cheek)
